LOOKING A LOT LIKE HOME

DAY 5: Extreme Makeover: Home Edition MN Visit

(Minnetonka, MN)- The new Swenson-Lee house will start to look a lot more like home today as the final touches are made to the exterior of the house. New custom siding and stone will be put on the outside of the home while sheetrock goes up simultaneously inside. Once that is done, trim, flooring and cabinets will be installed. Landscapers will also start the amazing transformation of the lot, beginning with new trees. Individually, each process normally takes at least a week to complete, but on this job site days are converted into hours.

EVENTS SCHEDULED FROM: August 21-28, 2007

LOCATION: 208 Park Lane S., Minnetonka, MN (directions, media instructions, parking and additional information available from media contacts or on www.TJBHomes.com)

FRIDAY'S PROGRESS: The entire house was framed and roofed, crews worked shoulder to shoulder to install all the electrical, heat and plumbing inside the home

TODAY'S NOTABLE/VISUAL EVENTS:

*5AM-5PM: Exterior siding

*2PM: Stone on the exterior, new trees put in

2:30PM: Senator Norm Coleman on site

*5PM: Exterior painting begins

**times are approximate
