ABOUT THE COMPANY:

Owner and founder, Tom Budzynski developed his love of real estate back in the ninth grade after interviewing his uncle, a real estate agent, for a class project. He bought his first piece of land at 18 and doubled his investment on it two years later. Shortly after, he became a licensed real estate agent selling property to others. In his spare time, Tom began buying and remodeling homes with his brother, Rick, which they would later resell. Always looking for a challenge and new opportunity, Tom soon shifted his focus to new home construction and thus, TJB Homes, Inc was born.

Over the years, TJB Homes, Inc. has been credited with many of the new concepts that are used in the Parade of Homes and Spring Preview. In Tom's thirty years of Real Estate and Construction, he has won many sales and building awards, including over 10 awards from the Parade of Homes and the Builder's Association Competition. Despite its great success, TJB Homes, Inc has remained true to its customer, community and industry. Tom has been very involved in building up the northern portion of the Twin Cities where TJB is headquarters and has passionately participated in the local builders association. As a family-run business, Tom takes great pride in TJB's customer service, treating each client as a member of his own family.
